They need at least 10 participants, more information coming next week. If we want a training at HHS (room 372) need a minimum of 10 people to attend and it is $1,200-$1,500 and it is also $395 per person. Kate will find out what the maximum attendance can be. Kate will also contact Karlyn to see if HHS has any plans to train trainers. Group discussed the benefits of having a train the trainer in Sheboygan versus having Sheboygan area people who are interested to go to Glendale on

ITEM	DISCUSSION/CONCLUSION/RECOMMENDATIONS
	March 29th. Kate to contact Adrian about scheduling a trainer to come to Sheboygan. Group discussed what different staff at the schools would benefit from being trained. How the training is being paid for is still being worked out. Group decided to look for a weekday in May to have a train the trainer session in Sheboygan. There is also an online 1 hour QPR training: https://www.qprinstitute.com/organization-training Mary talked to HSHS employees in western WI. They do a number of QPR trainings in their community (schools, service clubs, and businesses). Last year they educated about 4,000 people. Mary to ask them how they marketed the training to schools.
